MARRIAGE MOMENTS

"And people brought Jesus a deaf man who had a speech impediment." (Mark 7:2) Sometimes in marriage it seems like one of us is deaf or at least not listening. Other times the speaker mumbles (or so I tell my husband). Which of you is better at speaking; which at listening? Practice each other's gift.

PARENTING POINTERS

THE VALUE OF LABOR

Heaven is blessed with perfect rest but the blessing of earth is toil.
—Henry Van Dyke

LIVING GOD'S WORD

Lord, open our ears to hear the many ways you speak to us in our lives, to listen for the gentle sound of your voice that often comes to us in stillness. May we be still and know that you are our God, ever ready and desiring to draw closer.

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

Sts. Peter & Paul welcomes Michael & Margie Anderson and Josh Norris as full-time parish members and Emily Cavaliere.

Please introduce yourselves so that we can get to know each other.

THE FLEA MARKET IS ONLY THREE (3) WEEKS AWAY! We need to have ALL parish members on board!

We have done a large flea market for the last several years. It has become a significant fundraiser for the parish and this year, the dates are Sept. 25th, 26th & 27th. The sign-up sheets are on the tables in the information center.

We are asking everyone we work with to help us scout for merchandise for our sale. One of our best sources has been moving/estate sales that donate their leftovers. Other church sales who will donate leftovers can be good too. Of course if you've been meaning to clean out your garage, basement, closets or attic, we hope you'll call us. We'll meet your and help unload. We do take many large items like furniture and appliances (still working). We do not take clothes.

If you know anyone doing a moving and/or estate sale or if you have items call Kevin or Jeanne Marie Kelly at 314-776-3409.

And THANKS for all you do at Sts. Peter & Paul.

STEWARDSHIP

"Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?" (JAMES 2:5)

What is more important – being rich in faith or rich in possessions? Society teaches us that possessions are most important. God teaches a different lesson. When we are rich in faith we know that material things really do not matter and we are more willing to share what we have.

That we may grow stronger in our faith, realizing that God does not measure us by what we possess but rather by what we do for one another.

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

Perhaps you saw the movie The King's Speech about the future king of England, George VI, whose speech impediment was so severe that it reduced him to tears of anger and humiliation. His wife, Elizabeth, found a speech therapist that was able to help him by using some unorthodox methods, such as rolling around on the floor, cursing, and singing. It is a profoundly moving experience when King George finally addresses his people over the radio and delivers a speech flawlessly, giving courage to his people on the eve of World War II.

The story in this Gospel tells us how Jesus helped a man to find his voice. The man whose tongue Jesus touched with his spittle (an element believed to ward off demons) came to speak "plainly." Another word for "plainly" would be "rightly," in the sense of correctly or truly. "Be opened!" Jesus says, and it happens (Mark 7:34). The man then spoke the truth of what Jesus did for him, and honored him.

As we hold firm to our faith in the Lord, Jesus calls us to both speak and act "rightly" in the eyes of the world, caring for those who have little and treating them with the same dignity as those who have much. We are called to imitate Jesus by reaching out tenderly to touch those who have been wounded by life and burdened by the rejection of others. Helping others to hear the sound of love can be done in many quiet ways and with little fanfare.

FEAR NOT

In these times, there is plenty to be afraid of, if we only look around. It seems that every day the news media have yet more bad news to tell: wars, disease, terrorism, drought, social unrest, and more. Some people have stopped using clock radios to wake up in the morning, preferring a jarring buzzer to the even more jarring morning news. What more do we need before we realize that we are finite creatures, and while there is much we can do to make our world better, ultimately there is a lot that is simply not within our grasp? To this our loving God says, "Be strong, fear not!"

We must do what we can to make our world a better and safer place, but we must also realize our limits and that our ultimate safety is in the hands of God. We can be comforted by the realization that God loves us beyond measure, and will give us every help in our efforts to make our world a loving and safe place for everyone.

Please drop your donations in blue plastic tubs at church when you attend Mass. By targeting an individual item each month, we will be able to donate the items that are short in their supplies. SUN., SEPT. 13
MASS FOR DECEASED CHILDREN

St. Mary Magdalen Parish in South City will be holding a Mass to remember children who have passed away. Msgr. Mark Rivituso will be the main celebrant and homilist for the 2 pm Mass. For more info, call Fran at 314.352.2111, ext. 4.

GOD'S WORD TODAY

Each week when we gather for Mass the Lord has something to say to us. Today's Gospel recounts the familiar story of the curing of the deaf man who had a speech impediment. This miracle story is surely meant for us to ponder the meaning of what occurs when we are "opened," like that deaf man, to the power of God. We need look no further than the second reading to discover this meaning. Saint James gets to the heart of it all when he tells us that God chose the poor in this world to be rich inheritors of the kingdom of heaven. James exhorts us to treat people fairly and not to judge based on outward appearances. At our baptism, we experienced what the Church calls the "Ephphatha Rite," a rite that is inspired by today's Gospel story. At that time, the priest or deacon touched our ears and mouth, praying that we would "be open" to professing the faith we hear. Let us pray that we will see with new eyes, hear with new ears, and respond to all in ways that are fair and just.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE!

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – Silence

We live in a world filled with noise: TV, radio, music, email, texts, and ads). But silence is essential for your spiritual life. As Matthew Kelly writes: "The more time you spend in silence, the more clearly you will hear the voice of God in your life" (The Four Signs, 51). This week, spend some time in the classroom of silence. Have you ever gone on a silent retreat? The Society of Our Mother of Peace in High Ridge has hermitages for those seeking silence for a few days. archstl.org/dynamic

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Orthodox Christians have a saying about the reality of sin. They speak of "this holy and sinful Church, which we love." We know all too well the effects of sin on the faith community. From our earliest days, we have seen baptism as a place where the old self dies in Christ, dies to sin, and rises to new life. Our ancestors in faith held that post-baptismal major sin was unthinkable. Yet, as one Baptist minister once explained, "We know that sin is drowned in the water, but it would appear that the devil is a pretty good swimmer."

The origins of the sacrament of penance have to do with a similar insight among bishops in the early church. A critical question for them was whether or not a baptized person who had committed a public sin could be re-established in church life, forgiven, and restored. Forgiven, yes, was an early answer, but restored was another matter. Penance would be a permanent lifestyle for the forgiven; they would live at the margins of the community, clearly visible in distinctive garments, and their access to the table of the Eucharist was restricted. The harsh beginnings of public penance led in time to a true treasure of our tradition: the ability to find our way home through the ministry of others, and a way for all of us sinners to experience the gentle embrace of our forgiving Lord.

MISSOURI CATHOLIC CONFERENCE ANNUAL ASSEMBLY - OCTOBER 3, 2015

Fifty years ago the Second Vatican Council came to a close, ushering in an exciting era in which the Church would boldly engage the modern world on issues of concern to people throughout the globe. Fifty years later, what are the issues that call for the courageous witness of Catholic citizens? You are invited to this free event. The Assembly will feature 15 engaging workshops covering topics including pro-life, education, Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato Si', race relations, poverty concerns, hospice care and much more. Please pre-register for the event by going to MOCatholic.org or calling 1-800-456-1679. See you on October 3!

St. Frances Cabrini Academy is proud to announce that the St. Louis Mosaic Project has chosen us as the 9th Ambassador School. We are proud to be a culturally-diverse, spiritually-rich and academically-focused Catholic grade school.
